

TOP STORIES

- LOCAL NEWS
- WEATHER
- INTERACTIVE RADAR
- TRAFFIC
- SPORTS
- BUSINESS
- POLITICS
- DNC 2012
- MILITARY
- NEIGHBORHOOD CALENDAR
- WEB SIGHTINGS
- SUMMER FUN PHOTO SWEEPSTAKES
- CONNECT A MILLION MINDS
- N.C. MISSING
- CAR COACH
- COOKING
- ENTERTAINMENT
- HEALTHY CAROLINA
- TRAVEL TIME
- CONSUMER WATCH
- YOUR HOME
- IN DEPTH
- SCHOOL NEWS
- TECH TALK
- STORY LINKS
- ABOUT US
- JOBS
- ROAD RUNNER MAIL
- LIVE BEACH CAM

Updated 07/21/2011 08:15 PM

First Lady joins Extreme Makeover Home Edition in Fayetteville

By: Andy Mattison

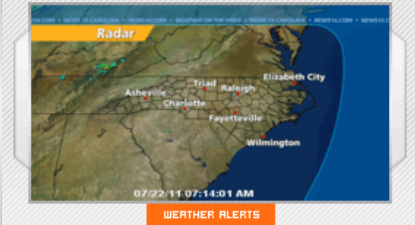

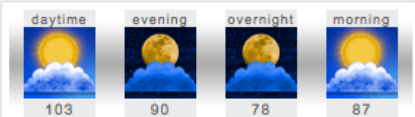

FAYETTEVILLE -- First Lady Michelle Obama was in Fayetteville Thursday.

The First Lady joined the crew of Extreme Makeover: Home Edition as they revealed the new house they built for Barbara Marshall and her family. The new home will provide support for homeless female veterans.

A large crowd gathered on Langdon Street for the big reveal of the new home and to try and catch a glimpse of the First Lady.

"I knew the show was big but not that big that she would come all the way out here just for the family. The family must appreciate it or they will when they find out," said Fayetteville resident Sarah Sales.

This is the first time Fayetteville has been featured on the reality show. The episode will air in the fall.

7-day forecast | today | radar | tropics

Political Connections

Every Friday at 6 p.m. only on News 14 Carolina

Hosted by anchor Tim Boyum, it's the show that connects you to the state's biggest issues and most influential people.

Follow Political Connections on Twitter @news14politics and @boyumnews14

And read the Political Connections Blog for the latest news On Jones Street and across the state of North Carolina.

MOST VIEWED

Child among dead following triple fatal shooting in southwest Greensboro

PLAY NOW

http://sandhills.news14.com/content/top_stories/644145/first-lady-joins-extreme-makeover-home-edition-in-fayetteville