"Extreme Makeover: Home Edition" will reveal the lucky family July 14 during the show's wake-up call.

The Heroes, Hearts & Hard Hats Festival at Festival Park is July 17.

The House Reveal (aka "Move that Bus!") is July 21.

The show is holding two community-wide initiatives in conjunction with the new home construction.

The USO of North Carolina and the Army's Army have partnered on a "Rack Pack Drive" that will be distributed to Fort Bragg single soldiers when they return from deployment. Donations of travel-size personal hygiene items such as shampoo, shaving cream, toothpaste, toothbrushes, wash cloths, body wash, dental floss and hand sanitizer will be collected for the packs. For information on how to give, go to uso-nc.org.

"Extreme Makeover" and builder Blue Ridge Log Cabins have partnered with Second Harvest Food Bank of Southeast North Carolina on the "Fill That Bus" food drive. Donations of non-perishable canned foods will be collected. Visit blueridgelogcabins.com for details.
